

Nursing Home

This request is usually made by someone with the legal right (such as the owner, POA, or realtor), to reevaluate the property for medicaid/medicare purposes due to owner being in nursing home.

A field check would be submitted for an appraiser to review the property.

A letter is then mailed out with the value.